

May 18, 2022

To whom it may concern

JX Metals Trading Co., Ltd.

Occurrence of new coronavirus infection at JX Metals Trading

JX Metals Trading Co., Ltd. (President & CEO : Suzuki Shoji ; below as “The company”) will end updated notification (news release) on new coronavirus infections on May 18th for the time being. However, if an event that disrupts the supply of our products may occur, it will be promptly announced.

The company informs on new coronavirus infection as follows;

If an employee is confirmed to be infected, The company immediately disinfects and sterilizes the activity range of the employee and takes the necessary measures such as identifying close contacts in accordance with the guidance of the local public health center.

The company continues to prioritize preventing the spread of infection inside and outside The company and ensuring the safety of our employees. It will be highly appreciated of your understanding.

Date of found positive : May 17, 2022

Office : Headquarters in Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo

Number of people : 1 (One)

Influence for supply : None